Description

Super quality and very decorative 19th century French Empire period cheval or dressing mirror. Original mirror plate in good condition and also, original brass mounts throughout. There is a full width single drawer to the frieze which is oak lined and runs smoothly. Lovely piece and the mahogany has a fabulous pale tone and has polished very nicely. There would have originally been a pair of candle sconces which would have fitted into the shield brasses to the round columns, but these have been separated at some point. I don't personally feel that anything detracts from the mirror, but I can source a suitable pair of you would prefer. Good condition, solid frame and a beautiful piece. Measuring: 72" or 183cm high x 34" or 86.5cm wide.
