Description

A superb pair of single beds in Spanish style, the shaped headboards covered in hand painted and tooled leather with studded borders, with turned oak foot posts and with limes oak side rails. I believe these beds to be of English manufacture from circa 1910-20. Some years ago I sold a pair of wall mirrors which were of the same construction and obviously by the same maker which had a retailers label for Liberty & Co. The beds will take a standard UK single mattress, the headboards measure 156cm high
