Description

This fine pair of elegant and well proportioned figured mahogany card tables stand on slender ring turned legs with ebonised turned patera at the tops which form part of the shallow frieze which is decorated with an ebony lined boarder. The fold-over tops have reeded edges and are veneered in matching figured mahogany with ebony stringing around the edges. The tops fold over and are supported by the back legs which fold out on a hinged double gate system which makes the tables very steady and well balanced. The interior is lined in green baize for playing cards and has a mahogany cross banded boarder. These tables are in excellent condition with a lovely colour and patina.
