Description

This large and impressive antique table top gong which dates from the late 19th century, is made using 2 large bovine horns mounted on an English oak base with decorative brass mounts and a blank central cartouche. The brass gong which is suspended between the two horns, is nicely polished and makes a nice loud dong when struck with the wooden striker. This impressive and highly decorative gong would look super cool in a restaurant, bar or hotel or a nice feature piece for your home and great for dinner parties. Material: Oak. Brass. Cattle Horn. Date: Late 19th century. Height: 34 cm (13 1/4") approx. Base: 35 cm (13 3/4") x 14.5 cm (5 3/4") approx. Weight: 2.412 Kg. Condition: Excellent antique condition with light signs of wear in keeping with age.
