Description

Emile A Gruppe American Impressionist 1896-1978. (Smith Cove Gloucester Harbour) 1950/60s impressionist oil painting on board of Gloucester harbour as he painted several similar paintings of different Gloucester harbour views. Also several small charcoal drawings of same. £300/£500 mark. Measures 23 x 19 inches unframed and is in good condition. Similar paintings have sold at US auctions within the last 10 years between £3000/£7000. Last 3 years some now over $20,000. All presently making well above auction estimates sometimes double the estimate, as the auction houses catch up. This is one of his better paintings, I have seen a few. These quality 20th cent impressionist paintings are a sound investment. In particular, this artist, rising fast in American auction houses now making twice the auction estimates of pre-2010 prices achieved. Signed bottom left E.A.G Size; 23inches x 19inches Plus frame The last image is another painting of his painted in the winter, likely sitting in the same place as it is the almost identical artists painting position, overlooking Gloucester Harbour. (Smiths Cove) We also think the dark brown boat in the background is the same boat, as t...
