Description

A good antique bench dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a solid fruitwood seat set on three supports with a central stretcher. One end of the bench is flat and the other rounded, most likely custom-made for a country estate where one end would have been put flat against the wall. A good height for using at a table or in a hallway. It is in good condition with a lovely rich patina and it is strong and sturdy. There are some light marks and general signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton, Devon. London £50.
