Description

ORIGINAL MEDICI PRINT Titled ' The Boy in Red ' After the original oil portrait painted in 1786 by French artist Madame Élisabeth Vigée-Lebrun. - A SHORT HISTORY OF MEDICI The Medici Society Ltd was founded in 1908 by Philip Lee Warner and Eustace Gurney. The company's original aim was to bring artists' work to the appreciation of a wider public through technically cutting edge high-end colour reproductions, with subjects chosen for their artistic value, beauty or sentiment sold "for the lowest price commercially possible". - The name Medici was chosen as a homage to the great Florentine family who did so much to encourage art in the Italian Renaissance. The profile of Lorenzo de' Medici (1449 - 1492), known as Lorenzo the Magnificent, was incorporated into the trade mark. - ABOUT ARTIST Élisabeth Louise Vigée Le Brun, also known as Madame Lebrun or Madame Le Brun, was a prominent French portrait painter of the late eighteenth century. Born: 16 April 1755, Paris, France Died: 30 March 1842, Paris, France On view: National Museum of Women in the Arts, National Gallery of Art East Building, Liechtenstein Museum, Tokyo Fuji Art Museum, Philadelphia Museum of Art, Nelson-Atk...
