Description

Antique revolving mahogany Canterbury (book or magazine rack), in good original condition & of a very distinct style. It's 19th century & probably Colonial. There are three very decorative compartments on the top section with lots of turned bobbins & the same decoration is repeated on the base. The top section spins around on the base. This is a very unusual item of furniture & an attractive piece. I've never come across something like this before. Width – 18?, 46 cm / 16?, 41 cm Depth – 13.4?, 34 cm Height – 29.5?, 75 cm
