Description

A lovely antique fitted vanity box, dating from the late 19th Century. The outer of the box is covered in a black leather with decorative gold tooling. It has a brass handle and a matching brass escutcheon on the front of the box. Inside, the box is fitted with four glass pots, each with silver plated lids. The box then opens out further to reveal additional storage compartments. It comes with its original working key. The box is in good condition for its age. It has been used but well looked after and has retained its natural aged look. The outer has some small age related knocks and scuffs but nothing detrimental. There are no major damages on any of the glass pots and the lids have been gently polished. The stitching is loose on the pen holder strap in the back of the box but generally it is clean and tidy inside and overall it displays very well and is certainly a nice usable item. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. UK Delivery £6.
