Description

A small, late Victorian mirror in a heavy and ornate brass frame, with the original backing and the original bevelled glass. The glass could easily be replaced by the buyer if preferred. The mirror measures 32cm in length and approximately 20.5cm across at the widest part. The frame is beautifully decorated with corn or grasses on one side and flowers on the other, and it comes with the original brass prop at the back. The frame was completely black when we bought it and we have had it professionally polished but not lacquered, and managed to remove most of the aged dirt from around the frame. The mirror and frame weigh about 1.5kgs and postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price and for outside areas or abroad, please contact us for a delivery quote.
