Description

A wonderfully beautiful and unique ring. The cushion shaped rose cut diamond in the centre is secured in a rubover open backed setting and displays a rich and deep cognac hue. The centre stone is flanked on either side by two pair of square cut rubies, each a glowing traffic light red. A total of thirty (15 each side) eight-cut diamonds are set in the white gold over-sized shoulders, leading a wide and flat 18k yellow gold shank. Just fabulous. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR (#30308689). Cut – Cushion shaped rose cut in the centre, with square cut and eight-cut diamonds. Colour – The centre is fancy brown. The diamonds in the sides are H to I. Clarity – The centre diamond is SI1. The diamonds in the sides are SI1 to SI2 (all are clean to the naked eye). Carat – The centre is a known 0.59 carat, with a further approximate 1.20 carat in the shoulders. The total approximate ruby weight is 0.85c carat. Circa – 1950. Size – Q (UK) or 8 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can be sized up or down. There is a limit to how much this can be altered, so please contact us first if you would need this resized.
