Description

Very fine George III period mahogany open arm chair in the neo-classical style; the square back with a channelled and beaded frame, similarly carved down-curved arms on slender fluted baluster supports and a beaded seat-frame and finely-detailed front legs with fluted-and-spiralled shafts and stiff-leaf headings and turned feet. The upholstery covered in mellow green hide with brass trim. Circa 1790 John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend every November.
