Description

Fine George III period mahogany wine-cooler; octagonal with a moulded rim, two brass bands and a pair of cast-brass lion's-mask carrying-handles*; on a stand with widely-splayed legs with open brackets and original brass castors. With a later fitted zinc liner. *The handsome brass handles are of the same pattern as those on a number of wine-coolers supplied by Thomas Chippendale. Circa 1770 John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend every November.
