Description

A fine quality late Victorian period mahogany display cabinet by the renowned cabinet makers Maple and Co of London. Of serpentine form and very well constructed in solid mahogany. The pair of glazed doors (lockable with key supplied) open to access a shelved and lined interior. The freeze above is decorated with a carved central motif flanked by swags and harebells. This is surmounted by a crisply carved pediment incorporating the prince of Wales feathers. All standing on elegant turned and reeded legs which are united by an under-shelf. Offered for sale in excellent condition, with a great colour and patina, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 115cms Depth 45cms Height 197cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house.
