Description

A rare and collectable Georgian drinking glass from the late 18th century. Denoting the glass as a gin glass rather than the more commonly found ale flute, is the cut pattern of juniper berries to the body. The glass has a conical bowl and sits on a rudimentary ball knob. The plain and wide foot is slightly domed and has the expected broken pontil mark. A charming example of a good collector's piece. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £10.00 UK. £16.00 worldwide. Condition :- Excellent, with no cracks or chips. Origin :- English. Date :- c1790. Rim diameter :- 6 cms. Height :- 13.6 cms. Foot diameter :- 7.6 cms.
