Description

Antique walnut chest of drawers This Antique walnut chest of drawers was made in the 19thc. using the same style and construction of a George I example. It was custom made by a highly skilled cabinetmaker for a wealthy family who lived in Surrey. As it is of a lovely small size that will enable you to fit it in many places around your home. These chests with the brushing slides are quite often called bachelors chests. The slide would be pulled forward to reveal the baize lined surface so that his valet could brush a gentleman's trousers before wearing. The chest is fitted the brushing slide lined in baize, below the slide are a pair of half width drawers under and then a further 3 full width graduated drawers under, all have feather banding and are lined in fine oak. The top is cross banded with feather banding. All the drawers have their original cut brass swing handles. Imagine how good this walnut chest will look in your home and how much enjoyment the ownership of it will bring you. 75cms wide 29 1/2ins 44cms deep 17 1/4ins 74.5cms high 29 1/4ins All dimensions are approximate. This item carries the Hingstons Antiques product guarantee plate. This gives you the peace...
