Description

A lovely antique Cheval mirror dating from the early 1900s. It has a rectangular mirror and is set on splayed legs. It is a good quality piece with delicate turned brass urn finials on the supports and matching brass handles. The mirror swings and can be adjusted and then tightened into place using the small handles either side of the supports. It has its original mirror plate with some minor spots of wear and foxing but nothing major. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are no major damages and it displays well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. Regular London deliveries for £50. Nationwide delivery available, please get in touch for an accurate quote.
