Description

Antique Waltham Bartlett pocket watch, 1902 The watch has a stem-winding movement, P S Bartlett grade, which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed and the serial number dates it back to 1902. The Bartlett grade was named after Patten Sargeant Bartlett who was one of the early employees of the Boston Watch Company which went on to become the Waltham Watch Company. He subsequently left Waltham to work for the National Watch Company at Elgin Illinois but eventually returned to Waltham to work as a salesman before opening his own wholesale business. The watch measures 55mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is the gold filled Premier model and was made in Canada by the American Watch Case Company. The case is in good overall condition, a couple of little marks to the bezel but nothing too serious at all. The case back has an attractive design, a little worn down by the years but still clearly visible. Both the bezel and case back are screw fitting, a nice sign of quality. The watch glass is in good condition. The dial has a couple of faint hairline cracks towards the bottom but they are short and faint. The watch will be sent in ...
