Description

This is an American hallmarked sterling silver milk or cream jug. It was made in the late 19th to early 20th Century by Bigelow, Kennard & Co of Boston, Massachusetts. They were in operation from 1863-1923. The jug is of simple form, with an engraved monogram and is raised on three supports. There is a dent to the front of the jug, right on the monogram. There are also some other dents, such as one side of the rim. It weighs 110g (3.56 oz)
