Description

Two good large size 18th century Pewter chargers or plates with London touchmarks to the back. The left hand one with the plain edge is in very good condition with no damage only scratching to the surface and is 13 3/4" diameter. The right hand one is larger at 15" diameter and has a shaped edge. There is a minor old crack to this one as shown in the photos. I always like the large ones of these, they look great on a dresser rack. SIZE; 13 3/4" diameter and 15" diameter CIRCA; 1770
