Description

A rare pair of Regency mahogany pedestal cabinets, each with drawer above a panelled cupboard door flanked by half-round reeded columns and raised on short turned legs. Width 58 cm. CONDITION REPORT: Both cabinets are in generally very good condition. They are structurally sound. We can see no significant losses to any of the veneers and there are no splits. The doors are not warped. We have both locks and both keys. All legs are original and in good order. The backboards are also original. We can see no evidence of any woodworm.
