Description

Victorian walnut serpentine credenza This Victorian walnut serpentine credenza was made circa 1865. The cabinet is of the dramatic serpentine shape and with delicate inlaid patterns on the frieze, panel door, and uprights. To each end is a glazed serpentine glass door that opens to allow access to the 2 fabric lined shelves and a further display area at the base. The central panel door with a large marquetry pattern opens again to reveal a fabric lined interior, full storage and a shelf. The cabinet has fine cast gilt cast brass mounts and applied beadings. Imagine how wonderful this will look in your home displaying your prized possessions while also providing good storage options. These can be used in many areas of your home. 190.5cms wide 75ins 44.5cms deep 17 1/2ins 106cms high 41 3/4ins All dimensions are approximate. This Victorian walnut serpentine credenza is a finite piece of antique furniture that is a very green product which has not affected the environment we live in.
