Description

A fine quality late Victorian period inlaid rosewood centre, or lamp, table. Made by the renowned cabinet maker James Shoolbred and Co of London. Of excellent construction with attractive rosewood veneers onto a solid mahogany frame. Decorated with inlaid stringing throughout and further embellished with floral motifs. Standing on elegant tapering legs which terminate in their original brass and ceramic castors. The legs united by decorative under-stretchers. This attractive table is offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 91cms Depth 91cms Height 74cms James Shoolbred & Co The name of James Shoolbred & Co is highly respected among admirers of Aesthetic Movement furniture. Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931. A particularly fine example of James Shoolbred antique marquetry furniture – an ornate piano by designer Henry Batley – is on display at the V & A museum, London. Established in the 1820s, James Shoolbred's Tottenham Court Road company began life as a drapers. It began supplying textiles to the furniture trade, and expand...
