Description

A magnificent antique Edwardian oak court cupboard carved in 17th Century style and dating from circa 1905. It consists of a cupboard over another cupboard both with twin panelled doors which lock and come with keys. In solid oak and of panelled construction the cupboard fronts beautifully carved in 17th style century, featuring a carved frieze and standing on stile feet. Wonderful colour and patina to the oak this is a really useful size at just 75cm wide and would make great TV cupboard or could be used for storage, gracing any room in the house. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good original condition, beautiful colour and patina. Lock to bottom cupboard is a replacement. Some splits in the oak to the top (see photos) but solid and sturdy. Other wear and marks commensurate with age.
