Description

George II walnut bureau Here is your opportunity to own a George II walnut bureau. It was made circa 1740, the cabinetmaker used walnut with subtle figuring in the grain. The 4 graduated oak lined drawers are fitted the original period swing grip handles with solid brass backplates. The bureau stands on straight bracket feet. To gain access to the fitted interior you lift forward the fall which reveals the pigeonholes, drawers and a central cupboard (with key) The fall has the classic feather banding inset around the inner edge of the good wide crossbanding. Bureaus are a wonderful piece of furniture to have in your home, not only charming to look at you have the double wow factor of the beautiful interior. Now with the onset of the i-pad and laptop these can be stored inside when the desk is not in use and there ready once you want to work or surf the internet. 99cms wide 39ins 52cms deep 20 1/2ins 100cms high 39 12ins Whilst we take great care measuring the sizes may not be exact. This is a finite item that is a very green product. We can arrange delivery nationwide; we also have a very reliable and good delivery service of single or multiple items to Ireland. We c...
