Description

A late 1800's double pine wardrobe in great condition for its age, with 2 doors, a central support, and a very deep foot well. The right hand door has a lock and key, the left door has sliding catches. Attractive feet. Currently in bare wood having recently been stripped. Ready for waxing or re-painting. With an internal depth of 22", plenty deep enough for hanging the largest of coats/suits etc. We will fit a hanging rail, shelf/shelves as required. This wardrobe totally dismantles for delivery so will go up any stairway. Would work well in a cottage or a house with low ceiling's, due to its smaller than average height (73") Height: 73", width: 69.5", depth: 26.5", internal depth: 22"

Internal Ref: E2100G
