Description

A magnificent late Regency rosewood breakfront side cabinet. This most impressive cabinet of grand scale with 4 doors each opening to reveal twin adjustable rosewood faced shelves. With very elegant turned and reeded columns with lotus leaf decoration. Constructed throughout of top quality timber & decorated in striking & highly figured rosewood veneers. The doors with diamond brass grilles and pleated pure silk panels. Retaining a beautiful colour & patination. Purchased directly from a private residence in The exclusive Belgravia -London where it belonged since being purchased by the previous owners mother at a leading London Antique Fair (believed to be Grosvenor House) in the mid 1960's
