

SA674456

Chinese 'Kraak' porcelain charger. Wanli Period (1573-1619). Late Ming.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA674456

Date of manufacture: 16th Century

Dimensions

Height = 10 cm (3.9")

Width = 48.5 cm (19.1")

Description

A large Chinese porcelain 'Kraak' charger, Wanli Period (1573-1619) Late Ming. Painted in underglaze blue, to the centre, with a panel of birds perched on rocks, amongst flowering plants, whilst two further bird fly above. Surrounded by a border of key fret motif. The broad border, painted with radiating panels of stylised flowering plants, and Buddhist symbols, within a moulded rim. Diameter - 48.5 cm, 19". Condition - Crack to rim - 10.5 cm in length. Fritting to rim. No restoration.

Seller Details

Philip Carrol Antiques

North Yorkshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 525 579

International Tel: +44 7860 525 579

