Description

This walnut chair with the lovely detailing dates from around 1900. It has a pierced splat back with a carved crown and sits on a nicely shaped cabriole leg. The seat front and sides also boast unusual splay sections with light relief carving. The seat has just been reupholstered to compliment the freshly cleaned walnut frame being intended for a dressing table it is a little more upright than some other chairs so fantastic for putting on the makeup. I very good chair with nice detail in lovely condition at a reasonable price. Seat height is a very normal 18 inches give us a call if you would like to discuss.
