Description

A very attractive old pine Linen Press, recently stripped so currently in the bare wood. Two doors in the top section that open to a quarter depth hat/bag shelf (at the very top), followed by a full depth shelf with 2 jewellery drawers. These can be removed and/or more shelves added as required, or a hanging rail fitted. There are two large full width drawers in the bottom section, each with the original handles. With beautiful (wavy edged) panelled doors, and large elaborate brass drop handles on the drawers - this piece of furniture would look very nice painted. Dating from the early 1900's, in good condition for its age. A very useful and practical linen cupboard. The top dismantles from the base for delivery, so should go up most stairway's.
