Description

Japanese porcelain bowl of deep, circular form with a multi-lobed rim and raised on a short foot rim, decorated with bijin walking past rustic dwellings amid pines and hills, inscribed to the base Shungetsusai Date c. 1920-30s Notes The Japanese word "Bijin" is the correct way of referring to an elegant young lady. The oft misused term "Geisha" should, strictly speaking, only be used for the followers of a very specific profession. Condition: small 2 inch hair line crack
