Description

A good example of an antique Ottoman with an attractive shape set on four castors. It has a hinged lift up lid and is fully lined inside. The top has been embroidered with a WW1 'Victory for the Allies' motif showing flags of the Allied Nations around the naval anchor. The sides are upholstered in a contrasting black fabric with bright matching tassels and braid. The ottoman is in good condition for its age. We have left the fabric and embroidery on to preserve the history of the piece. It has slightly worn and freyed in places and there is a small hole in the back panel but it still displays beautifully. There are a few marks and stains on the lining but nothing detrimental and the piece is certainly usable as it is or it could be upholstered to suit your needs. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £45 or collection from Ashburton, Devon.
