Description

A wonderful and must be very rare, French 19th Century Farmhouse Dining Table, having 2 fold over flaps so the table can double in size width ways, very useful in a kitchen maybe. Made from solid oak and we have bleached it for the modern feel but it can be easily waxed to any colour or shade. The hinges of the flaps are a nice feature in themselves and there are 4 lopers that pull out to support the flaps. This interesting and highly practical table is in excellent condition for the home.
