Description

A small old rustic pine dresser, with a two shelved plate rack, over a two drawer, two door dresser base. It has an attractive wavy cornice top. The drawer's charming original Victorian scallop cup handles are in very good order. The drawers are nice and deep for plenty of storage space. This English farmhouse dresser is small in height, so would work well in a cottage. It has a smaller than average rack with a slightly taller than average base. It was waxed some time ago, with lots of character and charm. Dating from the turn of the century. Ready for collection or delivery. The top separate's from the base for transport. Overall height 74.5", surface height 40.5", width 48", depth 16.5"
