Description

Waltham Riverside pocket watch, Cockerton Brass Band. The watch has a stem-winding movement, Riverside grade, model 1895, which is working nicely. The nicely patterned movement is fully signed and the serial number 7,342,533 dates it back to 1897. The movement has gold jewel settings, a Church 1892 micro regulator and a Breguet hairspring. The Riverside was produced in low numbers with just 1000 being produced in total (two runs of 500 in 1897). The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover which has the most beautiful inscription... 'Presented to Mr Jno R Copping by the Members of the Cockerton Prize Brass Band, as a token of respect and esteem, on his retirement from the honorary secretaryship of the Band, 21st March 1902'. The case is in good condition, just a little wear near the hinge, probably from where it has rested in a pocket over the years. The watch glass is in good condition. The dial looks good to the naked eye. Through a jeweller's loupe, there is a faint hairline running down from between 11 and 12. The watch comes in a new presentation box. From www.cockertonband.org Cockerton Saxhorn Band was formed in 1863 when James Hoggett, the music ...
