Description

Fine quality antique walnut drop flap side table with a very useful storage compartment inside. The top surface is burr walnut with cross banding around the edges & the front panel is also the same. This table is polished all the way around, so can be free standing. There is one drawer on the front & the flap in the middle of the top lifts up to reveal the storage space. The corners are grooved & carved, while the tapered turned legs are fluted too. This very useful side table is in excellent original condition, with plenty of character & I would date it to around the 1930's period. Width – 22 inches, 57 cm Width open – 35 inches, 88 cm Depth – 14 inches, 36 inches Height – 30 inches, 77 inches
