

SA676115

French 18th Century Copper Ferrat

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA676115*Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Dimensions

Height = 21 cm (8.3")

Width = 34 cm (13.4")

Description

A Ferrat is a copper vessel used to measure grain or water, originating from the Auvergne region of France. This example has two handles and dates to the 18th Century. A beautiful decorative piece that can be used as a planter or to display bottles. Measures 21cm tall by 34cm wide

Internal Ref: 024266

Seller Details

Malcolm Eglin Antiques

Hexham Northumberland United Kingdom

Tel: 07966 398123

International Tel: +44 7966 398123

