Description

Large old English pine farmhouse table with six drawers (3 on each side), with the original brass cup handles, and all sliding nicely. A solid table with chunky square legs and a thick top. Rustic and aged appearance, dating from c.1920. The legroom height may be a little tight, depending on the chairs you're using, in which case we can add to the legs to allow for more height. Please call us to discuss this further. Seen here before restoration. Price includes the following: stripping of old wax and re-polishing, gaps in table top filled and made good, and new bottoms of drawers made and fitted. Can be purchased before restoration (as seen pictured here), please call to discuss, and for a price. Height 30.5", leg room height 23", length 83", width 38"
