Description

Great condition and good size early c19th French cherrywood kitchen or dining table with its original chestnut carving slide which can be handy if you need to fit another two people at the table and a single drawer to the other end. Good solid cherrywood planked top with cleated or breadboard ends and standing on turned legs in the Charles X period. The table will seat 6 to 8 in comfort and lovely to have the original chestnut carving slide too, not forgetting the very useful and deep drawer to the other end. The table top does have signs of ageing gracefully as you would expect and has cleaned and polished up beautifully. Measuring: 76cm high 91.5cm wide 166.5cm long 60cm from floor to underside of apron 29.5cm drawer width 43.5cm drawer length 48cm long pull out slide
