Description

A superb antique Victorian Canterbury whatnot in exotic burl wood and ebonised veneers dating from circa 1880. Boasting beautifully figured exotic burl wood veneers (probably Thuya or Amboyna), ebonised banding and gilt highlighted scratch carved details throughout. The base section features three dividers with turned supports over a single frieze drawer with elegant brass handles, above four turned feet with original brass castors with black ceramic wheels. Construction/Wood: Ebonised walnut with exotic burl wood inlays Condition Report: Beautifully figured with warm patina. Would have originally had a brass gallery to the top - two small filled in holes to the top. Some small chips to the veneer in places. General age related wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 58cm Depth: 38cm Height: 74cm Drawer Internal: 44cm Wide x 29cm Deep x 5cm High
