Description

superb Antique large Victorian Cylinder Top Oak Pedestal Desk and dating from around 1880. It has a polished top with moulded gallery back above a cylinder front with turned oak knob handles and which opens to reveal a central letter rack flanked on either side by four small drawers with satinwood fronts. The Writing desk area slides out. The central area with original leather skiver can be raised revealing compartment under. To each side there is a further leather skiver which again raises to reveal a hidden compartment. Each pedestal has three graduating drawers all of which are mahogany lined with turned original knob handles and raised on a plinth base on castors. It has a polished back and can therefore be situated in any part of a room. A truly superb quality desk.
