Description

Beautifully styled is this 1930's Art Deco French Bonbonniere. Typical Art Deco colouring which is as bright and crisp as when first manufactured. The glaze is also free from crazing. Wonderfully styled features with beauty spot included. This is quite a rare piece and is ideal for display and use. She's in great condition and is free from chips, hairlines and peeling of paint and much taller than usually found of these boxes. A lovely piece. This is a lovely piece either for the collector or for someone with discerning taste with multiple applications aside from its original intent. Sourced just outside of Paris, France. " M .
