Description

A fine example of an antique Sterling Silver milk or cream jug with an elegant design with gadrooned detail and an angular handle. The jug is stylish and good quality, weighing approximately 65g. It is hallmarked for William Aitken, Chester, 1901. It is slightly rubbed but still distinguishable. It is in very good condition for its age. There are no major damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint internal marks and spots of tarnishing and a few light surface marks and minor dinks but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. UK Delivery £5, rest of the world £15.
