Description

A rare opportunity to purchase a bespoke Art Deco dressing table and stool by Bath ArtCraft Ltd, associated with the Bath Cabinet Makers Company. It was commissioned by the daughter of a Colonel in 1929, and until now has remained in the same family. The dressing table and stool was made to the daughter's stringent instructions and this is shown in the many letters between her father and Bath ArtCraft. These letters will accompany the suite along with the original design drawings. The dressing table has three drawers to each side, a triptych mirror and a column light to each side, that has been rewired. The dressing table has protective glass tops. This superb quality, top of the range suite is made of figured ash and chrome and comes in excellent condition. It is difficult to appreciate the quality of this item through the images. Dressing Table. Height: 49cm (with mirror 159cm) Width: 130cm Depth: 40cm Stool. Height: 46cm Width: 45cm Depth: 36cm Recovered in cream leather.
