Description

An achingly lovely antique two stone ring. The main pair of diamonds in the centre – both bright, white and full of fire – are secured in fine eight claw open collets. The sweeping bypass shank is set with ten (five each side) diamonds in the shoulders, with a curving flourishes ending with a further rubover-set eight-cut diamond. Effortlessly elegant. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR (#30308773). Cut – A pair of old European cut diamond. The remaining stones are eight-cuts. Colour – The main stones are F to G. The accent diamonds are G to I. Clarity – The main stones are VS2 and SI1 respectively. The accent diamonds are SI1 to SI2; all are clean to the naked eye. Carat – The combined weight of the main stone is approximately 0.45 carat, with a further approximate 0.10 carat in accent stones. Circa – 1930. Size – Q 1/2 (UK) or 8.25 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can be sized up or down. Measurements – The top of the ring is 10.5 wide and sits 4.4mm from the finger. Metal – 18k white gold. French control marks.
