Description

Beautiful piece of jewellery from the house of Jakob Bengel, dating to the 1930's. One of the leading manufacturers of Art Deco jewellery, the company produced in the 1920's and 1930's very innovative and individual pieces of the time, aesthetically characterised by their unique designs and modernist slant. This Aztec patterned bracelet is quite weighty and is segmented with engine turned pieces linked with in chrome squares with blue glass accents and black enamel. Condition is very good with only the mildest signs of it's true age. Ideal for day or evening wear for the fashion savvy lady of today. All of our Jewellery and watches are sent out first class in a complimentary gift/presentation box. About Jakob Bengel Jakob Bengel was a chain and costume jewellery factory, founded by Jakob Bengel in 1873 in Idar-Oberstein, Germany. Until 1920, the company specialised in the production of watch chains and chatelaines. In the 1920's and 1930's, it became one of the leading manufacturers of fashion jewellery in the Art Deco style
