Description

A most attractive, Victorian yellow gold signet ring set with a lovely diamond. This ring has a curved square to the top where a neat diamond is set within a star cut setting. Either side of the ring band has wide shoulders at the top that graduate to a smaller width shank near the bottom. Inside the shank are the hallmarks for Birmingham 1854. A charming ring in lovely antique condition. The band is a good depth - not flimsy and feels nice and solid. Hallmarks: Birmingham 1854 Measurements: Ring size UK N Measurements of setting: shoulder to shoulder 9 mm approx. Depth of setting 8 mm approx. Width of band at base: 3 mm approx. Weight: 3.9 grams
