Description

Regency style mahogany dining table This Regency style mahogany dining table is made in the classic design of the Georgian era. The cabinetmaker chose redundant period timber to construct this table. It is of an unusual small size, that was commissioned by the previous owner's family in the early part of the 20thc. As this is such a good cottage size it will fit any dining setting and will seat 8 comfortably. These tables are so elegant and just fit into a rooms décor smoothly. 188.5cms long with leaf in place 74ins 105.5cms wide 41ins 75cms high 29 1/2ins 130cms closed without leaf 51ins All dimensions are approximate. This Regency style mahogany dining table is a piece of antique furniture that is a very green product that have not affected the environment we live in.
