Description

Very impressive large antique mahogany console side table in excellent condition & of very high quality. It's antique George III style & dates to around the 1930's period. This table has a serpentine shaped front with canted corners on the top & on the outside legs. The top is inlaid with satinwood & cross banded, while the three drawers are also inlaid & cross banded with original brass handles. It has four legs on the front which are all tapered & inlaid with spade end feet. Long console tables that are slim from back to front are quite rare to find & usually in high demand.
