Description

A most unusual silver plated biscuit box with domed hinged lid and elegant engine turned decoration. There is a catch to the front, keeping the box securely shut. The underside is fully marked for Thomas Harwood and Sons, this mark being used between 1864 to 1896; making this a true Victorian example. Very smart and in excellent condition measuring 5 1/2" in diameter x 6 3/4" tall. FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England ITEM ID 41007
